What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?

The Issuer is subject to the following key risks:

1. Liquidity risk arising from potential inability to borrow or access the capital markets on suitably favourable terms (including due to adverse changes in its credit ratings) or to sell its assets. This may also arise from increased liquidity costs. CS relies significantly on its deposit base for funding, which may not continue to be a stable source of funding over time.
2. Risks arising from the suspension and ongoing liquidation of certain supply chain finance funds and the failure of a US-based hedge fund to meet its margin commitments (and CS's exit from its positions relating thereto), in respect of which a number of regulatory and other inquiries, investigations and actions have been initiated or are being considered. In addition, there are risks arising from the impact of market fluctuations and volatility on CS's investment activities (against which its hedging strategies may not prove effective). The spread of COVID-19 and resulting government controls and containment measures implemented around the world have caused severe disruption to global supply chains, labour markets and economic activity, which have contributed to rising inflationary pressure and a spike in market volatility. The withdrawal of emergency monetary policies and liquidity support measures put in place by central banks during earlier stages of the COVID-19 pandemic may negatively affect economic growth and adversely affect CS's businesses, operations and financial performance. The spread of COVID-19 is continuing to have an adverse impact on the global economy, the severity and duration of which is difficult to predict. The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted, and may continue to adversely affect, CS's credit loss estimates, mark-to-market losses, trading revenues, net interest income and potential goodwill assessments, and may also adversely affect CS's ability to successfully realise its strategic objectives and goals. CS is also exposed to other unfavourable economic, monetary, political, legal, regulatory and other developments in the countries in which it operates (as well as countries in which CS does not currently conduct business), including the escalating conflict between Russia and Ukraine, as a result of which the United States, European Union, United Kingdom and other countries have imposed, and may further impose, financial and economic sanctions and export controls targeting certain Russian entities and/or individuals (such that CS may face restrictions (including any Russian countermeasures) on engaging with certain consumer and/or institutional businesses), and which could lead to regional and/or global instability, as well as adversely affect commodity and other financial markets or economic conditions. In addition, there are uncertainties regarding the discontinuation of benchmark rates. CS's significant positions in the real estate sector, and other large and concentrated positions, can also expose it to larger losses. Many of these market risk factors, including the impact of COVID-19, may increase other risks, including CS's credit risk exposures, which exist across a large variety of transactions and counterparties and in respect of which it may have inaccurate or incomplete information. These are exacerbated by adverse economic conditions and market volatility, including as a result of any defaults by large financial institutions (or any concerns relating thereto).
3. CS's ability to implement its current strategy which is based on a number of key assumptions, is subject to various factors outside its control, including market and economic conditions and changes in law. The implementation of CS's strategy may increase its exposure to certain risks, including credit risks, market risks, operational risks and regulatory risks. CS's exit from certain businesses and expansion of its products, such as sustainable investment and financing offerings, may have unanticipated negative effects in other areas of its business and may result in an adverse effect on CS's business as a whole. The implementation of CS's strategy relating to acquisitions and other similar transactions subjects it to the risk that it may assume unanticipated liabilities (including legal and compliance issues),

- as well as difficulties relating to the integration of acquired businesses into its existing operations.
4. Country, regional and political risk in the regions in which CS has clients or counterparties, which may affect their ability to perform their obligations to CS. In part because an element of CS's strategy is to increase CS's wealth management businesses in emerging market countries, it may face increased exposure to economic, financial and political disruptions in those countries, which could result in significant losses. Related fluctuations in exchange rates for currencies (particularly for the US dollar) may also adversely affect CS.
 5. A wide variety of operational risks arising from inadequate or failed internal processes, people, systems or from external events, including breaches of cyber-security and other failures of information technology. CS relies heavily on financial, accounting and other data processing systems, which are varied and complex, and may face additional technology risks due to the global nature of its operations. CS is thereby exposed to risks arising from human error, negligence, employee misconduct (including errors in judgement, fraud, malice, and/or engaging in violations of applicable laws, rules, policies or procedures), accidental technology failure, cyber-attack and information or security breaches. This also exposes CS to risk from non-compliance with existing policies or regulations. Protecting against threats to CS's cyber- security and data protection systems requires significant financial and human resources. Cybersecurity risks have also significantly increased in recent years in part due to the growing number and increasingly sophisticated activities of malicious cyber actors. The ongoing global COVID-19 pandemic has increased the vulnerability and likelihood of damage to CS's information technology systems as a result of a cybersecurity incident because of the wide-scale and prolonged shift to remote working for CS's employees and the increased reliance by CS's customers on remote (digital) banking services. CS's existing risk management procedures and policies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposures in all economic market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that CS fails to identify, anticipate or mitigate, in whole or in part, which may result in unexpected, material losses. In addition, inadequacies or lapses in CS's risk management procedures, policies, tools, metrics and modelling can require significant resources and time to remediate, lead to non-compliance with laws, rules and regulations and attract heightened regulatory scrutiny, exposing CS to regulatory investigations or legal proceedings and subjecting it to litigation or regulatory fines, penalties or other sanctions, or capital surcharges or add-ons, as well as reputational damage. Moreover, CS's actual results may differ materially from its estimates and valuations, which are based upon judgement and available information and rely on predictive models and processes. The same is true of CS's accounting treatment of off- balance sheet entities, including special purpose entities, which requires it to exercise significant management judgement in applying accounting standards; these standards (and their interpretation) have changed and may continue to change. In addition, physical and transition climate risks could have a financial impact on CS either directly, through its physical assets, costs and operations, or indirectly, through its financial relationships with its clients. Given the growing volume of nascent climate and sustainability-related laws, rules and regulations, increasing demand from various stakeholders for environmentally sustainable products and services and regulatory scrutiny, CS may be subject to increasing litigation, enforcement and contract liability risks in connection with climate change, environmental degradation and other environmental social and governance related issues.
 6. CS's exposure to legal risks is significant and difficult to predict and the volume and amount of damages claimed in litigation, regulatory proceedings and other adversarial proceedings against financial services firms continues to increase in many of the principal markets in which CS operates. CS's business is highly regulated, and existing, new or changed laws, rules and regulations (including in relation to sanctions) and monetary policy applicable to CS (as well as regulations and changes in enforcement practices applicable to its clients) may adversely affect its business and ability to execute its strategic plans and increase costs, as well as impact the demand from clients for CS's services. Moreover, CS's ability to attract and retain customers, clients, investors and employees, and conduct business transactions with its counterparties, could be adversely affected to the extent its reputation is damaged, which could arise from various sources, including if its procedures and controls fail (or appear to fail). In addition, Swiss resolution proceedings may affect CS's shareholders and creditors.
 7. CS faces intense competition in all financial services markets, which has increased as a result of consolidation, as well as new and emerging technologies (including trends towards direct access to automated and electronic markets, robo-advising, digital assets and the move to more automated trading platforms). New technologies, such as cryptocurrency and blockchain, may disrupt the financial services industry and require CS to commit further resources to adapt its products and services. In this highly competitive environment, CS's performance is affected by its ability to recruit and retain highly skilled employees.

What are the key risks that are specific to the Securities?

The Securities are subject to the following key risks:

1. Risks in case of an insolvency or resolution measures in respect of the Issuer. An investment in the Securities constitutes unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will not be covered by any statutory or other deposit protection scheme and does not have the benefit of any guarantee. Therefore in the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, an investor in the Securities may lose all or some of its investment therein irrespective of any favourable development of the other value determining factors, such as the performance of the underlying asset(s). Similarly, prior to an insolvency of the Issuer, rights of the holders of the Securities may be adversely affected by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA's broad statutory powers in the case of a restructuring proceeding in relation to Credit Suisse, including its power to convert the Securities into equity and/or partially or fully write-down the Securities.
2. Potential loss of some or all of the investment. Investors may lose some of their money depending on the performance of the relevant underlying asset(s). As the Offer Price is 100 per cent. of the aggregate nominal amount, if the underlying asset(s) does not perform positively or performs positively but to an insufficient extent, or, if the amount payable on redemption of the Securities is less than the purchase price paid by investors for the Securities, investors could lose some of their investment. In addition, if the Securities are sold in the secondary market for less than the purchase price paid by the relevant investor, investors could lose some or all of their investment.
3. Risks in connection with redemption of the Securities at the unscheduled termination amount. The Securities may be redeemed at the unscheduled termination amount in certain circumstances, including: following the occurrence of an event of default or for illegality reasons or following certain events affecting the Issuer's hedging arrangements and/or the underlying asset(s). In such circumstances, the unscheduled termination amount is likely to be less than the original purchase price and could be as low as zero and, following any such early redemption, investors may be unable to reinvest the proceeds in an investment having a comparable return. Following the occurrence of any such event, no other amounts on account of interest or otherwise shall be payable by the Issuer in respect of the Securities. Following the occurrence of any relevant event, the only amount payable in such circumstances shall be the unscheduled termination amount (which shall not be less than the specified minimum amount) and investors will not be able to participate in any potential upside performance of the underlying asset(s) after the occurrence of the relevant event.
4. Risks in connection with discretionary rights of the calculation agent and related termination rights of the Issuer. Upon the occurrence of an adjustment event, the Issuer or calculation agent has broad discretion to make certain modifications to the terms and conditions of the Securities to account for such event, without the consent of the Securityholders, including but not limited to, adjusting the calculation of the value of any underlying asset or any amount payable or other benefit to be received under the Securities, or substituting any underlying asset. Any such adjustment, postponement, alternative valuation or substitution could have a material adverse effect on the return on, and value of, the Securities and shall be made without the consent of the Securityholders.
5. Risks associated with equity indices. The performance of an index is dependent upon macroeconomic factors which may adversely affect such performance and, in turn, the value of the Securities. An investment in the Securities is not the same as a direct investment in futures or option contracts on such index nor any or all of the components of such index and, in respect of price return indices, Securityholders will not have the benefit of any dividends paid by the components of such index or, in respect of total return indices, in certain circumstances, all dividends paid by components of such index may not be fully reinvested in the index. A change in the composition or discontinuance of an index could adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities.
6. Risks in connection with the secondary market. The secondary market for the Securities may be limited, may never develop at all or may not continue even though the Securities are listed, which may adversely impact the market value of such Securities or the ability of the investor thereof to sell such Securities. In addition, the market value of the Securities will be affected by factors beyond the control of the Issuer, such as the creditworthiness of the Issuer, the remaining time to maturity of the Securities, interest and yield rates, the value and volatility of the underlying asset(s), the occurrence of certain events in relation to the underlying asset(s) and national and international events.
7. The effect of averaging. Amount(s) payable on the Securities are based on the average of the values of the underlying asset(s) on specified averaging dates. The amount(s) payable may be significantly less than they would have been had such amount(s) been linked only to the value of the underlying asset(s) on the date on which the value was highest.

Hvilke nøkkelrisikoer er spesifikke for Utsteder?

Utstederen er gjenstand for følgende nøkkelrisikoer:

1. Likviditetsrisiko som oppstår fra en potensielt manglende evne til å låne eller få tilgang til kapitalmarkedene på egnede gunstige vilkår (herunder på grunn av negative endringer i kreditverdighet) eller selge sine aktiva. Dette kan også skyldes økte likviditetskostnader. Når det gjelder finansiering er CS sterkt avhengig av sin innskuddsbase, som muligens ikke fortsetter å være en stabil finansieringskilde over tid.
2. Risikoer som oppstår som følge av suspensjon og pågående avvikling av visse forsyningsskjedefinansieringsfond og et USA-basert hedgefonds manglende evne til å oppfylle sine marginforpliktelser (og CSs uttreden fra sine posisjoner knyttet til dette), hvor en rekke regulatoriske og andre henvendelser, undersøkelser og handlinger er igangsatt eller vurderes. I tillegg er det risikoer som oppstår på grunn av markedsswingninger og ustabilitet i CSs investeringsaktiviteter (som sikringsstrategiene kanskje ikke viser seg å være effektive mot). Spredningen av COVID-19 og de resulterende myndighetskontrollene og begrensningstiltakene som gjennomføres over hele verden har forårsaket alvorlige forstyrrelser i globale forsyningssjeder, arbeidsmarkeder og økonomisk aktivitet, noe som har bidratt til økende inflasjonspress og mer markedsustabilitet. Tilbaketrekning av pengepolitiske nødhjelpstiltak og likviditetsstøttetiltak iverksatt av sentralbanker i tidlige stadier av COVID-19-pandemien kan påvirke økonomisk vekst negativt og ha en negativ innvirkning på CSs virksomheter, drift og finanzielle resultater. Spredningen av COVID-19 fortsetter å ha en negativ innvirkning på den globale økonomien og det er vanskelig å si hvor lenge det vil vare. COVID-19-pandemien har i betydelig grad påvirket, og kan fortsette å ha en negativ innvirkning på, CSs kreditrapsestimer, markedsverditap og potensielle goodwillvurderinger, og kan også ha en negativ innvirkning på CSs evne til å realisere sine strategiske mål. CS er også utsatt for annen ugunstige økonomisk, monetær, politisk, rettslig, regulatorisk og annen utvikling i landene de driver virksomhet i (så vel som land der CS ikke driver virksomhet), herunder den eskalerende konflikten mellom Russland og Ukraina, som har resultert i at USA, EU, Storbritannia og andre land har innført, og kan innføre ytterligere, finanzielle og økonomiske sanksjoner og eksportkontroll rettet mot visse russiske selskap og/eller enkelpersoner (slik at CS kan stå overfor restriksjoner (herunder eventuelle russiske motiltak) knyttet til engasjement med visse forbruker- og/eller institusjonelle virksomheter), og som kan føre til regional og/eller global ustabilitet, samt påvirke råvare- og andre finansmarkeder eller økonomiske forhold negativt. I tillegg er det usikkerhetsmomenter rundt avviklingen av referanserentene. CSs betydelige posisjoner i eiendomssektoren, og andre store og konsentrerte posisjoner, kan også utsette selskapet for større tap. Mange av disse markedsrisikofaktorene, herunder virkningen av COVID-19, kan øke andre risikoer, herunder CSs kreditrisikoeksponeringer, som eksisterer på tvers av en lang rekke transaksjoner og motparter og som selskapet kan ha unøyaktig og ufullstendig informasjon om. Disse forverres av negative økonomiske forhold og markedsustabilitet, herunder som følge av mislighold fra store finansinstitusjoner (eller bekymringer knyttet til dette).
3. CS' evne til å implementere sin nåværende strategi, som er basert på en rekke sentrale forutsetninger, er gjenstand for ulike faktorer utenfor CS' kontroll, herunder markedsmessige og økonomiske forhold samt lovendringer. Implementeringen av CS' strategi kan øke CS' eksponering for enkelte risikoer, herunder kreditrisiko, markedsrisiko, driftsrisiko og regulatorisk risiko. CSs uttreden fra visse virksomheter, og produktutvidelser, for eksempel bærekraftige investeringer og finansieringstilbud, kan ha uventede negative virkninger på andre områder av virksomheten og kan ha en negativ innvirkning på CSs virksomhet som helhet. Gjennomføringen av CSs strategi knyttet til oppkjøp og andre lignende transaksjoner utsetter selskapet for den risikoen at det kan måtte ta på seg uventede forpliktelser (herunder rettslige og compliance-spørsmål), samt vanskeligheter knyttet til integrering av oppkjøpte virksomheter i eksisterende virksomhet.
4. Landspesifikk, regional og politisk risiko i regionene der CS har klienter eller motparter, som kan påvirke deres evne til å utføre sine forpliktelser overfor CS. Delvis fordi en del av CSs strategi er å øke CSs formuesforvaltningsvirksomhet i fremvoksende markeder, kan selskapet være eksponert for økonomisk, finansiell og politisk uro i disse landene, som kan føre til betydelige tap. Relaterte valutakursswingninger (spesielt for amerikanske dollar) kan også påvirke CS negativt.

5. Et bredt spekter av operasjonelle risikoer som oppstår fra mangelfulle eller mislykkede interne prosesser, personer, systemer eller fra eksterne hendelser, herunder brudd på cybersikkerhet og andre feil ved informasjonsteknologi. CS er sterkt avhengig av økonomi-, regnskaps- og andre databehandlingssystemer, som er varierte og komplekse, og kan stå overfor ytterligere teknologirisiko på grunn av virksomhetens globale karakter. CS er dermed utsatt for risikoer som oppstår på grunn av menneskelige feil, uaktsomhet, ansattes uredelighet (herunder dårlig dømmekraft, svindel, ondsinnethet og/eller brudd på gjeldende lover, regler, retningslinjer eller prosedyrer), utilsiktet teknologisk, cyberangrep og informasjons- og sikkerhetsbrudd. Dette utsetter også CS for risiko for manglende overholdelse av eksisterende retningslinjer eller forskrifter. Beskyttelse mot trusler mot CSs cybersikkerhet og databeskyttelsessystemer krever betydelige økonomiske og menneskelige ressurser. Cybersikkerhetsrisikoer har også økt betydelig de siste årene, til dels på grunn av det økende antallet og stadig mer sofistikkerte aktiviteter fra ondsinnete cyberaktører. Den pågående globale COVID-19-pandemien har økt sårbarheten og sannsynligheten for skade på CSs informasjonsteknologisystemer som følge av en cybersikkerhetshendelse på grunn av det omfattende og langvarige skiftet til hjemmekontor for CSs ansatte og CSs kunders økte tillit til fjern(digitale)banktjenester. CSs eksisterende risikostyringsprosedyrer og –retningslinjer er kanskje ikke fullt ut effektive i å redusere risikoeksponeringen i alle økonomiske markedsmiljøer eller mot alle typer risiko, herunder risikoer som CS ikke klarer å identifisere, forutse eller utbedre, helt eller delvis, noe som kan føre til uventede vesentlige tap. I tillegg, mangler eller feil i CSs risikostyringsprosedyrer, retningslinjer, verktøy, beregninger og modellering kan kreve betydelige ressurser og tid å utbedre, føre til manglende overholdelse av lover, regler og forskrifter og tiltrekke økt regulatorisk tilsyn, og utsette CS for regulatorisk tilsyn eller rettslige prosesser og utsette det for rettsaker eller regulatoriske bøter, straffer eller andre sanksjoner, eller kapitaltillegg eller andre tillegg, samt omdømmeskade. Dessuten kan CSs faktiske resultater avvike vesentlig fra estimatorer og verdivurderinger som er basert på skjønn og tilgjengelig informasjon, og som er avhengige av forutsigbare modeller og prosesser. Det samme gjelder for CSs regnskapsmessige behandling av foretak utenfor balanseregnskapet, herunder spesialforetak, som krever at det utøves betydelig ledelsesskjønn i anwendelsen av regnskapsstandarder; disse standardene (og tolkningen av disse) har endret seg og kan fortsette å endre seg. I tillegg kan fysiske og overgangsklimarisikoer ha en økonomisk innvirkning på CS enten direkte, gjennom selskapets fysiske aktiva, kostnader og drift, eller indirekte, gjennom dets økonomiske forhold til sine klienter. Gitt det økende volumet av gryende klima- og bærekraftsrelaterte lover, regler og forskrifter, økende etterspørsel fra ulike interessenter etter miljømessig bærekraftige produkter og tjenester og regulatorisk tilsyn, kan CS bli gjenstand for et økende antall rettsaker, tvangsfullbyrdelse og kontraktrisiko i forbindelse med klimaendringer, miljøforringelse og andre miljømessige virksomhetsstyringsrelaterte spørsmål.
6. CSs eksponering for rettslige risikoer er betydelig og vanskelig å forutsi, og volumet og mengden av skader som kreves i rettsaker, regulatoriske prosesser og andre kontradiktorske prosesser mot finansielle tjenesteselskap fortsetter å øke i mange av de viktigste markedene CS har virksomhet i. CSs virksomhet er sterkt regulert, og eksisterende, nye eller endrede lover, regler og forskrifter (herunder knyttet til sanksjoner) og pengepolitikk som gjelder for CS (samtidig som forskrifter og endringer i tvangsfullbyrdelsespraksis som gjelder for dets klienter) kan ha en negativ innvirkning på selskapets virksomhet og evne til å gjennomføre sine strategiske planer og øke kostnadene, samt påvirke etterspørselen fra klienter etter CSs tjenester. Dessuten kan CSs evne til å tiltrekke og beholde kunder, klienter, investorer og ansatte, og gjennomføre forretningstransaksjoner med sine motparter, bli negativt påvirket i den grad dets omdømme blir skadet, noe som kan oppstå fra ulike kilder, herunder dersom prosedyrer og kontroller mislykkes (eller ser ut til å mislykkes). I tillegg kan sveitsiske tvistesaker påvirke CSs aksjonærer og kreditorer.
7. CS møter intens konkurranse i alle markeder for finansielle tjenester, som har økt som følge av konsolidering, samt nye og fremvoksende teknologier (herunder trender i retning av direkte tilgang til automatiserte og elektroniske markeder, robo-rådgivning, digitale aktiva og overgang til mer automatiserte handelsplattformer). Nye teknologier, slik som kryptovaluta og blokkjede, kan forstyrre finansnæringen og kreve at CS bruker ytterligere ressurser for å tilpasse sine produkter og tjenester. I dette svært konkurranseutsatte miljøet påvirkes CSs ytelse av evnen til å rekruttere og beholde svært dyktige medarbeidere.

Hvor vil Verdipapirene bli handlet?

Det vil bli søkt om å notere Verdipapirene for handel på den regulerte markedsplassen Nasdaq Stockholm AB.

Hva er de viktigste risikoene som er spesifikke for verdipapirene?

Verdipapirene er underlagt følgende hovedrisikoer:

1. Risikoer i forbindelse med konkurs av eller myndighetsvedtak knyttet til Utsteder. En investering i Verdipapirene utgjør usikrede forpliktelser for Utsteder og vil ikke være dekket av en lovbestemt eller annen innskuddsbeskyttelsesordning eller garanti. Derfor, hvis Utsteder går konkurs, kan en investor i Verdipapirene tape hele eller deler av sin investering uavhengig av en gunstig utvikling av andre verdibestemmende faktorer, for eksempel utviklingen til underliggende aktiva. Tilsvarende, før Utsteders konkurs, kan rettighetene til Verdipapirinnehaverne bli negativt påvirket av det sveitsiske finanstilsynet FINMAs vide lovfestede fullmakter i forbindelse med en eventuell omstrukturering av Credit Suisse, herunder fullmakt til å konvertere Verdipapirene til egenkapital og/eller helt eller delvis nedskrive Verdipapirene.
2. Potensielt tap av deler av eller hele investeringen. Investorer kan tape noe av det investerte beløpet avhengig av prestasjonen til de(n) relevante underliggende aktiva(ene). Ettersom Tilbudsprisen er 100 prosent av samlet Pålydende Verdi, kan investorer tape deler av investeringene sine hvis det/de underliggende aktivum/aktiva ikke presterer positivt, eller det/de underliggende aktivum/aktiva presterer positivt men i utilstrekkelig grad, eller hvis beløpet som skal betales ved innløsning av Verdipapirene er mindre enn kjøpesummen betalt av investorer for Verdipapirene. I tillegg, hvis Verdipapirene selges i annenhåndsmarkedet for mindre enn kjøpesummen som ble betalt av den relevante investoren, kan investorer tape deler av eller hele investeringen.
3. Risikoer i forbindelse med tidlig innløsning av Verdipapirene. Verdipapirene kan løses inn tidlig under visse omstendigheter, herunder: Etter at det har oppstått en misligholdshendelse eller på grunn av ulovligheter eller etter visse hendelser som påvirker Utsteders sikringsordninger eller underliggende aktiva. Under slike omstendigheter vil den tidlige innløsningskursen sannsynligvis være lavere enn den opprinnelige kjøpesummen og kan være så lav som null, og etter en slik tidlig innløsning kan det være at investorer ikke vil være i stand til å reinvestere inntektene i en investering med sammenlignbar avkastning. Etter at en slik hendelse har inntruffet, skal ingen andre beløp i tilknytning til renter eller annet betales av Utsteder i forbindelse med Verdipapirene.
4. Risikoer knyttet til utregningsagentens rett til bruk av skjønn og utsteders relaterte oppsigelsesrettigheter. Når en justeringshendelse eller en ekstraordinær hendelse inntreffer, har Utsteder eller Verdsettelsesagenten vide fullmakter til å foreta visse endringer i betingelsene for Verdipapirene for å kunne ta hensyn til en slik hendelse uten å måtte innhente samtykke fra Verdipapirinnehaverne, inkludert, men ikke begrenset til, å justere beregningen av verdien av ethvert underliggende aktivum eller ethvert beløp som skal utbetales eller andre fordeler som skal mottas under Verdipapirene eller erstatte et underliggende aktivum. Enhver slik justering, utsettelse, alternativ verdsettelse eller erstatning kan ha en vesentlig negativ innvirkning på avkastningen på og verdien av Verdipapirene og skal foretas uten å innhente Verdipapirinnehavernes samtykke.
5. Risikoer forbundet med aksjeindeks. Resultatene fra indeksene avhenger av makroøkonomiske faktorer som kan påvirke resultatene negativt, og dermed også verdien av verdipapirene. En investering i Verdipapirene er ikke det samme som en direkte investering i futures- eller opsjonskontrakter i en slik indeks eller noen (eller alle) komponentene i en slik indeks, og med hensyn til prisavkastningsindeks vil ikke eiere av Verdipapirene begunstiges med noe utbytte som utbetales av komponentene i en slik indeks, eller – når det gjelder totalavkastningindeks – utbytte som betales av komponenter i en slik indeks, kan ikke reinvesteres fullt ut i indeksen. En endring av sammensetningen eller avvikling av en indeks kan påvirke verdien og avkastningen til Verdipapirene negativt.
6. Risikoer knyttet til annenhåndsmarkedet. Annenhåndsmarkedet for verdipapirer kan være begrenset, kan aldri utvikle seg i det hele tatt, eller kan opphøre selv om verdipapirene er notert, noe som kan påvirke markedsverdien til verdipapirene negativt, eller kan påvirke investorens muligheter til å selge slike verdipapirer. Markedsverdien til Verdipapirene vil i tillegg påvirkes av faktorer som er utenfor utsteders kontroll, for eksempel Utsteders kreditverdigitet, Verdipapires tid til forfall, renter og avkastningssatser, verdien og volatiliteten til de underliggende aktivaene, visse hendelser knyttet til de underliggende aktivaene, og nasjonale og internasjonale hendelser.
7. Effekten av gjennomsnittsberegning Verdipapirenes betalbare beløp bygger på gjennomsnittet av de underliggende aktivaenes verdi på spesifikke datoer for gjennomsnittsberegning. De betalbare beløpene kan være vesentlig lavere enn om slike beløp hadde vært knyttet til de underliggende aktivaenes verdi på datoene verdien var høyest.

Gebyrer skal betales til Distributøren(e). Når det gjelder beregninger og avgjørelser knyttet til Verdipapirene, vil det kunne være en interesseforskjell mellom Verdipapirene og Utsteder, forhandleren, CSEB og deres tilknyttede selskap. Spesielt kan Utsteder, forhandlerne, CSEB og deres tilknyttede selskap ha andre forretningsinteresser (andre forretningsforbindelser og aktiviteter), og når de driver virksomhet kan de utføre handlinger og ta skritt som de anser som nødvendige for å beskytte sine interesser uten hensyn til konsekvensene for en bestemt Verdipapirinnehaver, noe som kan ha en negativ innvirkning på verdien av og avkastningen på Verdipapirene. I sin vanlige forretningsdrift kan Utsteder, forhandlerne, CSEB og/eller noen av deres tilknyttede selskaper gjennomføre transaksjoner knyttet til underliggende aktiva og kan inngå en eller flere sikringstransaksjoner knyttet til Verdipapirene. Slike aktiviteter kan påvirke markedskurven på, likviditeten til, verdien av eller avkastningen på Verdipapirene og kan være ugunstige for interessene til de aktuelle Verdipapirinnehaverne.
